(C) PETITIONS ACCOMPANIED BY APPEARANCE OF OTHER COUNSEL. A petition to withdraw appearance, accompanied by the proper appearance of other counsel, or where one has been recently filed, shall constitute a waiver of the requirements of (B) of this rule.

(D) TENDERED ORDER. At the time of filing a petition to withdraw, counsel shall tender to the Court an order granting the petition and ordering the relief sought with sufficient addressed envelopes to non-local attorneys and any unrepresented parties.

Requests for hearing should be made in proper pleading form and not by correspondence to the Clerk.

LR38-TR10-1 PREPARATION OF PLEADINGS, MOTIONS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS

All pleadings and orders shall be titled to delineate each topic included in the pleading, and further specificity shall be provided by placing subtitles within the body of the pleading, e.g., where a pleading contains an Answer, a Counterclaim, a Cross-claim, a Motion to Dismiss, a Motion to Strike or a Jury Request. The abbreviation (H.I.) should not be used in pleadings.

(B) SIGNATURES AND REQUIRED INFORMATION. Neither typewritten signatures nor facsimile signatures shall be accepted on original documents. Facsimile signatures are, however, permitted on copies and facsimile filing. All pleadings shall contain the written signature and attorney number of the individual attorney, his or her printed signature, the name, if appropriate, of the law firm, complete address and telephone number (including zip and area codes respectively), and a designation as to the party for whom he or she appears.

LR38-TR16-1 CIVIL PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCES

(1) In Cases Triable by Jury: Upon motion of any party; or upon order of the Court.

(2) In Cases Triable by the Court: Within the sole discretion of the Court. A party may request a Pre-Trial Conference in a case triable by the Court, but shall specifically state reasons in said request.

(B) CONFERENCE OF ATTORNEYS. The Conference of Attorneys provided for in Trial Rule 16(c) is encouraged, but not required. In the event a Conference of Attorneys is held, plaintiff's counsel shall prepare, in advance of the Pre-Trial Conference, a statement regarding the conference of attorneys and forward same to opposing counsel for their approval. Said statement shall then be filed with the Court at the time of the Pre-Trial Conference.

(C) ORDER FOR PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE. Notice of the setting of the Pre-Trial Conference shall be given by written order of the Court.

(D) MEANS OF CONDUCTING CONFERENCE. The Court shall designate within the text of the Order for Pre-Trial Conference whether the conference is to be held by telephone or by personal appearance in Court by counsel of record for the parties. (E) AGENDA. The Court may attach to the Order for Pre-Trial Conference a written agenda delineating matters to be considered at the Pre-Trial Conference. (F) PRE-TRIAL ORDER. Following the Pre-Trial Conference, the Court may request that counsel prepare and tender a proposed Pre-Trial Order or, in the alternative, the Court itself may prepare and forward to counsel a Pre-Trial Order. In all cases, however, the letter and intent of such Pre-Trial Order shall be strictly complied with by all counsel and parties.

LR38-TR26-1 CIVIL DISCOVERY RULES

(A) USE OF COPY. In the event it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the original of a deposition or request for discovery or response thereto cannot be filed with the Court when required, the Court may allow use of a copy instead of the original.

(B) MOTIONS TO SHORTEN TIME TO RESPOND. A motion requesting that the Court shorten the time period for response to discovery shall specifically set forth reasons for the request. Any such motion shall be accompanied by a tendered order containing blank lines for the Court's use in establishing the response date. Such motions shall specifically set forth why the shortened response time is necessary. Lack of diligence on the part of the requesting party may result in a summary denial of the request.

LR38-TR26-2 SIGNATURES AND CERTIFICATION.

For discovery filed with the Court in seeking sanction or an order compelling, every request for and response to discovery shall be signed by a party as required by the Indiana Rules of Civil Procedure and shall further be signed by at least one attorney of record in his or her individual name. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign the request or response and state his or her specific address and phone number. Signature(s) shall constitute a certification that the signing person(s) has read the request or response and that, to the best of that person's knowledge, information and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry, such request, answer or objection is:

- (1) warranted by existing law or constitutes a good faith attempt to extend, modify or reverse existing law;
- (2) for no improper purpose, such as harassment, unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and
- (3) not unreasonable, unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the prior discovery in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

Upon the failure to certify a request or response, or certification which is in violation of this Rule, the Court, on motion of party or upon its own initiative, may impose appropriate sanctions.

LR38-TR26-3 DISCOVERY CONFERENCE AND DISCOVERY MATERIALS.

(A) DISCOVERY CONFERENCE. At any time after commencement of an action, the Court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference on the subject of discovery. The Court may do so upon motion by the attorney for any party if the motion is accompanied by a discovery plan which includes:

- (1) A statement of the issues as they then appear;
- (2) A proposed schedule of discovery;
- (3) Any limitations proposed to be placed on discovery;
- (4) Any proposed orders with respect to discovery; and
- (5) A statement showing that the attorney making the motion has made a reasonable effort to reach agreement with opposing attorneys on the matters set forth in the motion. Each party and his attorney are under a duty to participate in good faith in the framing of a discovery plan proposed by the attorney for any party. Notice of the motion shall be served on all parties. Objections or additions to matters set forth in the motion shall be served no later than ten (10) days after service of the motion.

(B) DISCOVERY CONFERENCE ORDER. Subsequent to the conference, the Court will enter a discovery conference order which will encompass the following:

- (1) A tentative identification of the issues;

- (3) Recitation of limitations, if any, on discovery;
- (4) Allocation of expenses, as may be deemed necessary for the proper management of discovery in the action;
- (5) Any other matters relating to discovery.

A Discovery Conference order may be altered or amended when justice requires.

LR38-TR32-1 DEPOSITIONS

(A) VIDEOTAPES. Subject to the Court's right to impose sanctions pursuant to T.R. 37, all videotapes and any expense incurred in placing said tapes in evidence at the time of trial shall be paid for by the moving party and not be taxed as Court costs. When videotapes are offered into evidence, the Court may require the offering party to file with the Court a transcript of the testimony contained therein.

(B) AGREED USE OF DEPOSITIONS IN LIEU OF TESTIMONY AT TRIAL. Attorneys frequently express the opinion or belief that depositions are taken for discovery purposes only, the concept of "discovery deposition" does not exist in the trial rules. The Court, however, desires to encourage the taking of depositions with the anticipation that they may be used in lieu of oral testimony at time of trial. In the event an agreement to use depositions in such manner is reached, pursuant to T.R. 32(A)(3)(f), such agreement shall be noted within the context of the deposition. This rule is not to be construed as a limitation on the use of depositions at trial under those circumstances delineated in T.R. 32(A)(3).

LR38-TR33-1 INTERROGATORIES

(A) NUMBER LIMITED. Interrogatories propounded to a party pursuant to T.R. 33 shall be limited in number to a total of twenty-five (25) with no more than four (4) subparagraphs per interrogatory. Subparagraphs shall relate directly to the subject matter of the interrogatory. Interrogatories shall be used solely for the purpose of discovery and shall not be used as a substitute for the taking of a deposition. For good cause shown, and upon leave of Court first obtained, additional interrogatories may be propounded.

(B) ANSWERS AND OBJECTIONS. Answers and objections to interrogatories under T.R. 31 or 33 shall set forth in full the interrogatories being answered or objected to immediately preceding the answer or objection with the interrogatory numbers identified.

(C) INTERROGATORIES NUMBERED AND DUPLICATED FORMS. All interrogatories shall be consecutively numbered and be applicable to the cause in which the same are filed and served. No photocopied or otherwise duplicated forms containing interrogatories shall be served unless they comply with the provisions of this Rule.

(C) AWARD OF EXPENSES OF MOTION PURSUANT TO T.R. 37(A)(4). A party who seeks an award of expenses or attorney's fees in conjunction with the filing of a Motion to Compel, shall make said request in a separate written petition. The petition will not, however, be summarily granted. The opposing party shall have a period of ten (10) days after service of the petition in which to respond and request a hearing.

A failure to respond may result in a summary granting of the petition. The Court may, however, in its discretion, set hearing upon any such petition and response.

(D) CONTENT OF MOTIONS TO COMPEL AND RESPONSES.

- (1) Motions to Compel. All motions to compel discovery shall contain the precise question or request propounded and the responsive answer or objection.
- (2) Responses to Motions. All responses to motions to compel discovery shall set forth the respective question or request propounded and the response or objection. Additionally, a recitation of the legal grounds in support of the response shall be provided.
- (3) Summary Ruling. Motions to compel and responses or objections which merely make reference to the moving party's discovery motion and the opposing party's response or objection shall be subject to summary ruling.

LR38-TR52-1 FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In all cases where counsel has requested findings of fact and conclusions of law under Trial Rule 52, counsel shall be required to submit proposed findings and conclusions both in written form and on disc formatted for Word Perfect.

LR38-TR53.5-1 CONTINUANCES.

(A) GENERAL. Motions for continuance are discouraged. Parties are not entitled to continuances as a matter of right, and the granting of a continuance for one party does not entitle opposing parties to a continuance as a matter of right.

(B) MOTION. A Motion for Continuance, unless made in open Court, shall be in writing and verified unless the Court directs otherwise. The motion shall set forth the date and time of the existing hearing and the specific reasons for the requested continuance. A motion which contains only general assertions, e.g., “Unavailability” or “other commitments”, with no additional specificity may be subject to summary denial.

(C) SIGNING REQUIREMENT BY PARTY TO SUIT. The Court may require any written Motion for Continuance to be signed by the party requesting the continuance in addition to counsel.

(D) TIME FOR FILING. Motions for Continuance shall be filed as soon after the cause for continuance is discovered by the party seeking same.

(E) CONSULTATION WITH OPPOSING COUNSEL. Prior to filing a Motion for Continuance, the movant’s counsel shall contact all opposing counsel of record and apprise them of the fact that a continuance will be sought and the reasons for the same. A Motion for Continuance shall recite that a consultation was sought and the position of opposing counsel to the sought continuance. Mere statements that attempts to reach opposing counsel have been unsuccessful without showing specific followup attempts may result in a summary denial of the motion.

(F) BY AGREEMENT OF COUNSEL. Where all counsel of record agree to the continuance, such agreement shall be submitted to the Court in a denominated “Agreed Motion for Continuance” signed by all counsel of record or by recitation within the text and title of the Motion that all counsel agree. Agreed Motions should be filed at least seven (7) days before the date of the hearing where feasible in order to permit the Court to schedule other matters.

(G) PAYMENT OF COSTS. The Court, in its discretion, may assess any costs and expenses necessarily incurred by the Court or parties as a result of continuances or delays.

(H) TENDER OF ORDER. All Motions for Continuance shall be accompanied by a tendered order sustaining same. The order shall identify the date and time of the existing hearing to be vacated and reset and contain appropriate blanks for the continued hearing to be completed by the Court.

LR38-TR56-1 MOTIONS - SUMMARY JUDGMENT.

(A) MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT - BRIEFS. Motions for Summary Judgment shall be accompanied by a brief. An adverse party shall have thirty (30) days after service of the movant's brief to file an Answer brief and any opposing affidavits. Extensions of time for filing briefs shall be granted only by order of the Court.

(B) MATERIAL IN SUPPORT OF AND IN OPPOSITION TO SUMMARY JUDGMENT. At or prior to the time of filing a Motion for Summary Judgment and Brief in support thereof or an opposing brief, counsel shall insure, that all supporting or opposing materials, including affidavits, are made a part of the record in the cause.

(C) BRIEFS. Briefs in support of and in opposition to Motions for Summary Judgment shall make specific reference to materials relied upon to support or oppose the Motion. Wherever feasible, copies of said materials should be attached to the respective briefs of the parties. When reference is made in a brief to a pleading, counsel shall indicate to the Court the filing date of said pleading. When reference is made to interrogatories or deposition, copies of the pertinent questions and answers shall be attached to the brief. Failure to comply with the provisions of this rule may subject such motions and responses to summary ruling.

(D) TIME FOR FILING MOTIONS. Although the rules of civil procedure permit early filing of Motions for Summary Judgment, counsel should refrain from filing Motions for Summary Judgment until discovery is sufficiently complete to permit a proper assessment of the Motion and Response. When Motions for Summary Judgment are prematurely filed, the Court may delay ruling and hearing thereon until a time subsequent to the Pre-trial Conference.

(E) UNTIMELY MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT. Due to congestion of Court calendars, any Motion for Summary Judgment filed less than thirty (30) days before the trial may not be considered by the Court.

(F) PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT.

(1) Any Motion for Partial Summary Judgment shall be accompanied by proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(2) Responses to Motions for Partial Summary Judgment shall similarly be accompanied by proposed findings of fact which reflect the genuine issues which a party contends exist in a cause.

(3) Each finding shall be accompanied by specific reference to the material that supports said finding.

(4) Conclusions of law shall make reference to statutory or case citations supporting same.

The Court reserves the right to request proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law when it determines that pursuant to the filing of a general Motion for Summary Judgment, a Partial Summary Judgment may be in order.

LR38-TR73-1 TELEPHONE CONFERENCING.

(A) PURPOSE AND SETTING. In order to expedite the Court's business, the Court encourages in conjunction with Trial Rule 73, the use of telephone conferencing for the hearing of motions, for the conducting of Pre-Trial Conferences and for other matters which may be reasonably conducted by use of telephone and shall be set at the discretion of the Court upon the Court's motion or upon request of a party.

(B) HEARING ON MOTIONS. Within ten (10) days after receipt of the notice of hearing, any party may request that the Court conduct the hearing in a manner different from that established in the notice. In the event, the Court sets hearing upon a motion by means of a telephone conference, it shall be the obligation of the party requesting their appearance by telephone, or moving party, to arrange and place the call at the time designated by the Court.

© SANCTIONS. Should the Court elect to set hearing upon motions for Pre-Trial conference by telephone, all counsel shall treat said setting as if the hearing or conference was to be conducted in open Court. Therefore, the Court reserves the right to order payment of the telephone call or of attorneys' fees in the event it determines that abuses have occurred in that counsel have failed or refused to cooperate in the placement of or coordination for said call.
